2018 USA Games competition sport: Unified Sports® Basketball

Summary: Tanner “Dangerous” Spatig has been a part of Special Olympics Wyoming for 8 years. He started on the Bridger Valley team and is now on the Evanston Special Olympics Unified Sports Basketball team. Tanner is a HUGE fan of the Evanston Red Devils where he is the honorary volleyball manager as well as the football and basketball manager. He is actively involved in 4-H and FFA and the Evanston Rodeo Series. Tanner participates in bowling, snow shoeing, basketball, swimming and equestrian through Special Olympics Wyoming. Tanner is so excited to represent the Cowboys at the 218 USA Games in Seattle with his Unified partner, best friend and cousin Caden Fry.

Special Olympics Wyoming sports: Unified Sports basketball, bowling, swimming, snowshoeing and equestrian

How Special Olympics changed my life: Being able to help others and be a team leader for my team .

Other accomplishments: Tanner works the chutes and the Evanston Rodeo Series. He is also going to Arizona in December for 4-H.

Other interests or hobbies: Any sports, but especially rodeo.

Looking forward to most about the Games: Getting to go to Seattle and representing Wyoming.

Attending the 2018 USA Games means: Having the chance to share with his community the importance of Special Olympics.

Employed? I am currently a student and Evanston High School.

I've competed in Special Olympics for: 8 years
